SLOTH

LAZY EDITORS:
BURKA BAYRAM
OZAN BILALOĞLU

We created Sloth and in its manifesto we praised the concept of laziness and a slow life. But since I'm one of the editors of Sloth, I must work hard for the zine every single day. It's the biggest paradox of my life!

Luckily we have another co-founder and editor (Ozan) and he does all the boring accounting stuff cuz he knows how to use Excel (insert vomiting emoji here).

Anyway, this month was not easy for me. My wife has caught covid (heavily) but mysteriously all my test results were negative... even though we are side by side at home during this period. I think I've an incredibly strong immunity, probably because of the horrible things I ate in my broke high school and college years. I wish everyone a pleasant reading and covid-free days!

 Highly recommended that you read the zine very slowly, you deserve a little break.*
